

Jeonju Intl. Film Festival

The 20th Jeonju IFF Regulations for Film Submission 2019

1. Organizations

The Jeonju International Film Festival is presented by the Jeonju International Film Festival Organizing Committee and hosted by the Jeonju International Film Festival Executive Committee.

2. Goals

The Jeonju International Film Festival promotes the spirit of independence and experimentalism. It also enthusiastically seeks new aesthetic and technological possibilities for contemporary cinema. Therefore the Jeonju IFF actively introduces audiences the forward-looking directors and progressive trends of contemporary cinema today. The Jeonju IFF will help audience members further their understanding of cinema, and also inducing the qualitative growth of Korean cinema.

3. Festival Dates

The 20th Jeonju International Film Festival will be held in Jeonju, South Korea for ten days from May 2nd to May 11th, 2019.

4. Programs

The programs of Jeonju International Film Festival are composed of Competitions and non-competitive sections along with other distinguish sidebar programs as below:

- ① Competitions : International Competition
Korean Competition
Korean Competition for Shorts
- ② Jeonju Cinema Project (JCP)
- ③ Frontline
- ④ World Cinemascope
- ⑤ Masters
- ⑥ Korea Cinemascope
- ⑦ Expanded Cinema
- ⑧ Cinemafest
- ⑨ Midnight Cinema
- ⑩ Cinematology
- ⑪ Special Focus

5. Entry Conditions

- (1) The production country of the entries that submitted to Korean Competition and Korean Competition for Shorts shall be limited to Korea.
- (2) International Competition entries must be screened in the mentioned period of at Jeonju International Film Festival and must have one of the following premiere conditions: Asian Premiere, International Premiere or World Premiere. And the entries must be made after January 2018.
- (3) Korean Competition and Korean Competition for Shorts entries must be screened in the mentioned period of at Jeonju International Film Festival and must have one of the following premiere conditions: Korean Premiere, Asian Premiere, International Premiere or World Premiere. And the entries must be made after January 2018.
- (4) International Competition entries must be the first or second feature of the director(s).
- (5) International Competition presents feature films including fictions, documentaries, animations, experimental films, and so on.
- (6) Korean Competition and Korean Competition for Shorts present feature and short films including fiction, documentaries, animations, experimental films, and so on.

(7) It is based on the screening time of features and shorts: The length of a feature film is 60 minutes or more, and the length of a short film is 40 minutes or less.

(8) A preview and a completely filled-in entry form must be submitted no later than 18:00 on January 18th, 2019 (in Korean Time) in order to be considered for selection. The preview screener must be sent as a private link or with a password, and it should not be considered for disclosure to the general public.

A. Subtitles: English subtitles must be provided if the original language of the film is non-English.

B. Screening Version: In case of official selection and official screening at the 20th Jeonju IFF, the preview must be identical or the same with the final screening version.

(9) After the entry form is completed on the Festival website, the submitter should not change the link or replace the preview file itself without notifying the Festival.

6. Selection

(1) Films for Jeonju IFF 2019 will be selected by the festival programmers. Each selected film will be notified individually.

7. Awards of International Competition

(1) Awards given out by the Jeonju International Film Festival are as follows:

A. Grand Prize : A cash award of 20 million KRW and a trophy will be given to one film screened in International Competition that contributes to widen the scope and the depth in the contemporary cinema, selected by five International Competition jury members.

B. Special Jury Prize : A cash award of 10 million KRW and a trophy will be given to one film screened in International Competition.

C. Special Jury Prize : A cash award of 10 million KRW and a trophy will be given to one film screened in International Competition.

(2) All the name of the awards and the prize money may be changed under the festival circumstances.

(3) At least more than five film experts including foreign figures are entrusted to the festival jury of the competition sections.

(4) In the event that a prize is awarded to two different films, the prize money is to be divided equally between both recipients.

8. Subtitling

(1) For the convenience of the international audience at the Jeonju IFF, the screening materials must be provided with English subtitles. The Jeonju International Film Festival Executive Committee has the right to reject the films without English subtitles.

9. Print Shipment and Return

(1) Eligible film formats and video systems are as follows:

A. Film :
35mm

B. Video :
Digital Beta-cam(NTSC), Beta-cam(NTSC), DV Cam(NTSC), HD

C. D-Cinema:
Window Version, Linux Version

(2) Prints must arrive at the festival's main office located in Jeonju before March 28th, 2019 at the address below.

Jeonju IFF Main Office (Attn: Print Coordinator)
(54999) 4F, Jeonju Cine Complex, 22, JeonjuGaeksa 3-gil, Wansan-gu,
Jeonju, South Korea

Tel : +82 63 288 5433 / Fax : +82 63 288 5411

E-mail : print@jeonjufest.kr

- (2) Right after the shipment, the print provider must e-mail a copy of the Airway Bill to the festival, indicating the method and date of shipment as well as the flight number for the airfreight. In addition, a copy of the invoice must be e-mailed stating the name of the sender, title of the film, length of the film, number of reels and film format. Also whether the film is in black-and-white or color should be indicated. The original copy of the invoice must be included in the print package.
- (3) The festival will be responsible for the round-way shipping cost only in the case where the shipment has been made through the official courier service designated by the festival. If the participant does not wish to use the designated courier service, the shipping cost will be decided under the approval of the Jeonju International Film Festival Executive Committee.
- (4) In case the print is shipped to or from other festivals, the festival will follow the standard practice of cost sharing. Regarding domestic prints, the festival will be responsible for the domestic shipping cost only.
- (5) Prints will be returned to the address indicated in the entry form within 3 weeks after the festival ends. In case the print should be returned to a different address, the print provider must inform the festival about the desired return address and date by sending a shipping instruction invoice no later than April 1st, 2019.
- (6) Other occasions about the print shipments shall follow the festival shipping instructions.

10. Submission of Documentation/Promotional Materials

- (1) The festival must receive complete documentation materials for each film selected before February 28th, 2019. The submitted documentation materials will be used in the Jeonju IFF program book as well as for other promotional purposes.

Jeonju IFF Seoul Office (Attn: Program Coordinator)

(06740) 2F, Kyeongwon Bldg., 56, Bawoomoe-ro 43-gil, Seocho-gu, Seoul, South Korea

Tel : +82 2 2285 0562 Fax : +82 2 2285 0560

E-mail : program1@jeonjufest.kr / program2@jeonjufest.kr

- (2) The Festival is entitled to use the submitted trailer or clip for promotional purposes. In case there is no trailer or clip available, excerpts from the film of a maximum length of five minutes will be used for these purposes.
- (3) The submitted documentation materials will not be returned unless there is specific request from the participant.
- (4) All the submitted materials with the approval of the copyright holder can be used to make a festival magazine, official website, a festival calendar and so on for non-commercial purpose.

11. Presentation at the Video Library

- (1) During the festival period, the private screening at the Video Library, which is allowed for the festival badge holders only, would be permitted with the submitter's prior consent to displaying the selected film.

12. Responsibilities and Insurance

- (1) The Festival will assume insurance responsibility against any loss or damage that may occur during the delivery and return of the print to and from the festival main office.
- (2) In case the previews are leaked due to the negligence management, the Executive Committee of the festival will be liable for any damage happened to the copyright holders.
- (3) For damage or loss incurred during the Festival, the liability of the festival is limited to reimbursement for the production costs of a new print following the standard rates. If the damaged or lost print is subtitled, the festival will also assume liability for the subtitling cost.

13. General Regulations

- (1) The above regulations take effect with the submission of a completed entry form signed by the director, producer, agent or domestic distributor of the film.
- (2) The Executive Committee of the festival reserves the right to decide upon matters not discussed in the above regulations.